Proposal Form

PROFESSIONAL INDEMNITY & PUBLIC LIABILITY

SWIMMING POOL INSPECTORS

Arranged through ASR Underwriting Agencies Pty Ltd Underwritten by Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's

IMPORTANT NOTES

PLEASE READ THESE GUIDANCE NOTES BEFORE COMPLETING THE PROPOSAL FORM. WHERE FURTHER INFORMATION IS REQUIRED PLEASE ATTACH IT TO THIS PROPOSAL FORM. This proposal must be typed, or completed in ink and signed and dated by such person (Proposer/You/Your) who must be of legal capacity and authorised by the Proposer to seek a quotation for Liability Insurance and any additional coverage that may be provided by the Insurer. Please answer every question fully, and state "NIL" or "NONE" as applicable. Incomplete answers may not be accepted and can delay quotation.

Should there be insufficient room in the Proposal Form for full details, please attach further information on signed and dated sheets, wherever possible following the same format and paragraph number. It is the duty of the Proposer to disclose all material facts to Insurers. Where this is omitted, the Insurers may avoid their obligation under the Policy.

For the purpose of the Proposal and for all purposes relating to any policy issued pursuant to this Proposal, a 'material fact' shall be deemed to be one that would be likely to influence an Insurer's judgement and acceptance of Your Proposal. Upon acceptance of the Insurers' terms and conditions and payment of the premium, all information provided by the Proposer together with the guidance notes will be deemed to be incorporated in the contract between Insurers and the Proposer.

CLAIMS MADE POLICY (applies to Professional Indemnity only)

This proposal is for a "claims made" policy of insurance. This means that the policy indemnifies You for claims made against You and notified to the Insurers during the period of insurance. The policy does not provide indemnity in relation to:

- Claims arising from facts or circumstances that occurred prior to the retroactive date of the policy (if such a date is specified);
- Claims made, threatened or intimated against You prior to the commencement of the period of insurance;
- Claims made against You after expiry of the period of insurance even though the facts or circumstances giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the insurance;
- Claims arising from facts or circumstance noted on the proposal form for the current period of insurance or on any previous proposal form;
- Claims arising from facts or circumstances of which You first became aware prior to the commencement of the period of Insurance, and which You knew or ought reasonably to have known had the potential to give rise to a claim under this Policy.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms. You have this duty until we agree to insure you. You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract. You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something: If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both. If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

PRIVACY

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide to us to assist with your insurance needs. We provide your information to insurance underwriters, brokers and agents that provide insurance quotes and offer insurance terms to you or the companies that deal with your insurance claim (such as loss assessors and claims administrators). Your information may be given to certain Underwriters at Lloyd's when we are seeking insurance terms from them, or to reinsurers who are located overseas. We also supply your information to the providers of our policy administration and underwriting systems that help us to maintain our products and services. You will be advised where those companies are located at the time any advice is given to you. We do not trade, rent or sell your information. If you do not provide us with full information, we cannot properly seek insurance terms for you, or assist with claims and you could breach your duty of disclosure. For more information about how to access the personal information we hold about you and how to have the information corrected and how to complain if you think we have breached the privacy laws, ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy by telephone to our Privacy Officer on 07 3442 3301 or visit our website www.asruw.com.au

EXCESS

The policy provides that You will be required to bear a specified amount of all claims and this is for each and every claim made against You including defence costs. We will let You know when the excess is payable.

YOUR LEGAL LIABILITY

If you take out a Liability cover section, the financial risk of court awards through litigation is ever increasing and we recommend that You select a Limit of Liability that takes into account the future cost of claims including legal fees and costs of defence. Even higher limits are available than your current limit if required. Defence costs are included within the limit of liability, when you take out a Liability cover section.

WAIVER OF RIGHTS

If You have entered into an agreement with another party, which prevents your Insurer from taking recovery action for compensation from that party it may affect Your rights to cover under this Policy. Should You now be a party to such an agreement or be requested to enter such an agreement in the future, please advise your Broker in writing so we may notify the Insurer.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Your Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy is issued on a CLAIMS MADE basis.

This means that this policy responds to:

1. Claims first made against you during the policy period and notified to the Insurer during that policy period, providing that you were not aware at any time prior to the policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a Claim may be made against you; and
2. Pursuant to Section 40, sub-section 3 of the INSURANCE CONTRACT ACT 1984 which states:

"Where the Insured gave notice in writing to the Insurer of facts that might give rise to a Claim against the Insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the Insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the Insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the Claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provided by the contract"

When the policy expires, no new notification generally can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to a Claim against you may have occurred during the policy period.

You will not be entitled to indemnity under your new policy in respect of any Claim arising out of circumstances of which you were aware at any time prior to policy inception which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a Claim may be made against you.

In accordance with the provisions of the INSURANCE CONTRACT ACT 1984, the Insurer is required to advise you of your responsibilities in relation to the disclosure of relevant information.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty, under the INSURANCE CONTRACT ACT 1984 to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, upon what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of matter:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the Insurer;
- That is of common knowledge;
- That your Insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of his business, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by their Insurer.

(It should be noted that this duty continues after the proposal form has been completed up until the time the policy is entered into.)

Non – Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce their liability under the contract in respect of a Claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the Insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning. It is therefore vital that you make sufficient enquiries BEFORE you complete your proposal form and BEFORE you sign any declaration that there has been no change in the information proposed.

Please take notice of the following statements pursuant to the provisions of the INSURANCE CONTRACT ACT 1984.

Surrender or Waiver of any Right of Contribution or Indemnity

Where another person or company would be liable to compensate you or hold you harmless for part or all or any loss or damage otherwise covered by the policy, but you have agreed with that person either before or after the inception of the policy that you would not seek to recover any loss or damage from that person, you are NOT covered under the policy for any such loss or damage.

Notice of Occurrences or Events

If during the period of this policy, the Insured shall become aware of any occurrence which may give rise to a Claim under the policy and shall, during the period of this insurance, give written notice to the Insurer of such occurrence, any Claim which may be subsequently made arising out of the occurrence of which notification has been given shall be deemed to be a Claim made during the period of this policy whenever such Claim may actually be made.

Contract by the Insured Affecting Rights of Subrogation

If the proposed contract of insurance includes a provision which excludes or limits the Insurer's liability in respect of any loss because you are a party to an agreement which excludes or limits your rights to recover damages from a third party in respect of that loss, you are hereby notified that signing any such agreement may place your indemnity under the proposed contract of insurance at risk.

Privacy Statement

The Insurer is bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 as amended by the Privacy Amendments (Private Sector) Act 2000 regarding the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information. The Insurer will protect the privacy of your personal information.

The Insurer will use the information you provide in this Proposal Form (including any supplementary documentation) to consider your application for insurance, to determine policy terms, to assess a claim, etc.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties who we believe are necessary to assist us. These third parties will only use your personal information for the purposes we provided it to them (or if required by law). The Insurer may also be required to disclose your personal information to others for the purposes of public safety and/or law enforcement.

If you provide us with personal information about other individuals you must ensure that you obtain consent from those individuals to disclose that information to us.

You are entitled to access your personal information and request any correction if required.
