Important Information

Insurer

The Policy is underwritten by Certain Underwriters at Lloyds of London who are referred to throughout this document as "We, Our or Us".

This is the Policy wording. It tells you:

- what the Policy covers,
- what the Policy does not cover,
- how to make a claim,
- Excesses, and
- other conditions.

Details of the insurance which are particular to you are shown on the Certificate which we send to you with the Policy wording. The date when your insurance cover ends is particularly important.

Please read this Policy carefully and retain it in a safe place.

How Goods and Services Tax affects any payments we make. The amount of premium payable by you for this policy includes an amount on account of the GST on the premium. When we pay a claim, your GST status will determine the amount we pay.

When you are:

- a. not registered for GST, the amount we pay is the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover including GST.
- b. registered for GST, we will pay the sum insured/limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance and where you are liable to pay an amount for GST in respect of an acquisition relevant to your claim (such as services to repair a damaged item insured under the Policy) we will pay for the GST amount.

We will reduce the GST amount we pay for by the amount of any input tax credits to which you are or would be entitled if you made a relevant acquisition. In these circumstances, the Input Tax Credit may be claimable through your Business Activity Statement (BAS).

You must advise us of your correct Australian Business Number & Taxable Percentage.

Any GST liability arising from your incorrect advice is payable by you.

Where the settlement of your claim is less than the sum insured/ limit of indemnity or the other limits of insurance cover, we will only pay an amount for GST (less your entitlement for Input Tax Credit) applicable to the settlement. This means that if these amounts are not sufficient to cover your loss, we will only pay the GST relating to our settlement of the claim.

We will (where relevant) pay you on your claim by reference to the GST exclusive amount of any supply made by any business of yours which is relevant to your claim.

GST, Input Tax Credit (ITC), Business Activity Statement (BAS) and Acquisition have the same meaning as given to those expressions in A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 and related legislation as amended from time to time.

Taxable Percentage is your entitlement to an Input Tax Credit on your premium as a percentage of the total GST on that premium.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Evidence of value

Please retain receipts of purchase or proof of the value of all property insured by this Policy so that you can prove the amount of any loss if you have to claim under this Policy.

Cooling-off information

If you want to return your insurance after your decision to buy it, you may cancel it and receive a full refund. To do this you may notify your Financial Services Provider electronically or in writing within 21 days from the date the Policy commenced.

This cooling-off right does not apply if you have made or are entitled to make a claim. Even after the cooling-off period ends, you still have cancellation rights however your Financial Services Provider may deduct certain amounts from any refund for administration costs or any non-refundable taxes.

If your Policy is for an event that will start and finish within the 21 day cooling-off period, you can only exercise your right before the event starts or the expiry of the cooling-off period, whichever is the earlier. For example, for travel insurance, the commencement of the journey is the event.

Preventing our right of recovery if you have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate you for any loss, damage or liability which is covered by this Policy we will not cover you under this Policy for that loss, damage or liability.

Third Party Interests

You must inform us of the interests of all third parties (eg. financiers, lessors) to be covered by this insurance. We will protect their interests only if you have informed us of them and we have noted them on the Certificate.

Our Agreement

We agree to provide you with the insurance cover set out in each of the Policy sections which you select and which are listed in the Schedule. You have paid or agree to pay us the premium set out in the current Schedule. The insurance cover is in force for the period of insurance set out in the Schedule. We will cover you for loss, damage and liability occurring during that period of insurance, subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the policy.

We will not pay any more than the sum insured or limit of liability for each section which is shown in the Schedule. We will not pay the excesses shown in the Schedule. If any loss or damage leads to a claim under more than one Section of this Policy, you must pay the highest applicable excess, but you need to pay only one excess.

IF FOS HAS NO JURISDICTION OR IF YOU ARE UNHAPPY WITH ITS DETERMINATION THEN THE FOLLOWING LLOYDS ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE IS AVAILABLE In the event that a dispute arises between We and You out of or otherwise in relation to this agreement, then:

- a. Any party to the dispute shall, without prejudice to any other right or entitlement they may have, give written notice to the other party (the "Dispute Notice") requiring them within 7 days of this notice to negotiate (whether in a face to face meeting or by teleconference) in good faith as to how the dispute can be resolved;
- b. If a dispute is not resolved within 10 days of the Dispute Notice, either party can request the other party within a further 10 days to agree on either:
 - b.1. a process for resolving the dispute through means other than litigation or arbitration, such as further negotiation, mediation, or any other alternative dispute resolution technique. The rules governing any such technique shall be agreed as between the parties and where no such agreement as to the process and or guidelines is reached within 10 days, then it shall be by mediation by a mediator selected by the Chairperson for the time being of Lawyers Engaged in Alternative Dispute Resolution (LEADR) (or other appropriate professional body as agreed by the parties); or
 - b.2. referral of the matters in dispute to an independent expert for an expert determination. The parties agree that they will not be bound by the determination of the expert. The expert:
 - b.2.1. will be a person agreed between the parties within 10 days of the dispute being referred to expert determination or failing this, the expert will be a person appointed by the Australian Insurance Law Institute (or other appropriate professional body as agreed by the parties);
 - b.2.2. will act as an expert and not as an arbitrator;
 - b.2.3. will proceed in such a manner as he or she thinks fit without being bound to observe the rules of natural justice or the rules of evidence;

- b.2.4. will take into consideration all documents, information and other written and oral material that the parties place before him or her including documents, information and material relating to the facts in dispute and to arguments and submissions upon the matters in dispute; and
- b.2.5. will act with expedition to provide the parties with a determination in writing within 35 days of the referral to him or her of the matters in dispute.

Both parties must use their best endeavours to achieve resolution by the selected process and further agree that neither party will initiate litigation (as set out in clause (c) below) without first pursuing such informal resolution techniques in good faith;

In the event that the dispute is not resolved by such informal process within 35 days of the Dispute Notice (or such other period as agreed in writing between the parties) the dispute shall be referred to litigation.

- c. Following either a mediation or an expert determination pursuant to clause (b) of this provision, either party may then initiate proceedings in any competent Court in the Commonwealth of Australia in relation to the matters in dispute.

Such proceedings may only be commenced on 14 days written notice to the other party and shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice applicable in such Court.

Any summons, notice or process to be served upon Underwriters may be served upon:

Lloyd's Underwriters' General Representative in Australia
Level 9 1 O'Connell Street
Sydney NSW 2000
Australia

who has authority to accept service and to appear on Underwriters' behalf.

If proceedings are instituted against any one of the Underwriters, all Underwriters participating in this insurance will abide by the final decision of such Court or any competent Appellate Court.

- d. Except where the dispute renders it impossible to do so, the parties will continue performing their respective obligations under the Policy while the dispute is being resolved, unless and until such obligations are terminated or expire in accordance with this agreement.
- e. Each party must use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that where a dispute is reasonably foreseeable, it is dealt with at a sufficiently early stage to ensure that there is a minimal effect on the ability of either party to perform its obligations under the Policy.
- f. Notwithstanding anything in this schedule, either party may at any time commence Court proceedings in relation to any dispute or claim arising under, or in connection with the Policy where the party seeks urgent interlocutory relief.
